

Finance Specialist for the implementation of IPSAS

The ICGEB is an Intergovernmental Organization operating within the United Nations Common System, with its Headquarters in Trieste (Italy) and scientific research Components in Trieste, New Delhi (India) and Cape Town (South Africa). The ICGEB will adopt International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS) from 2012.

A qualified finance specialist is sought to continue preliminary work already undertaken, working with a small ICGEB team to establish IPSAS-compliant accounting and financial procedures and policies, to develop a transition plan, and to participate in other IPSAS-related strategic initiatives within ICGEB.

A consultancy is foreseen for a period of 6-8 months, based in Trieste, with the possibility of extension; salary will be commensurate with the incumbent's responsibilities. The selected candidate may be required to undertake travel to ICGEB's Components in New Delhi and Cape Town as well as to other organizations within the UN Common System. Fluency in spoken and written English is essential, with the ability to draft policy documents in English.

Candidates should submit full CV by completing the ICGEB's Personal History Form available on <http://www.icgeb.org/vacancies.html>.
